

2012 Ministry Goals

Dwayne Gibson

- Visit every church member/family in their home (annual goal)
- Develop, execute, and/or participate in various CLBC ministry events during the year:
 - Men's Bible Study – possibly expand it to include a late morning study
 - Men's Breakfast – 3-4 times during the year; use the time for fellowship and encouragement
 - Marriage Conference – secure site, organize registration, publish/post resources and follow-up material
 - Good Friday Service – continue to use this service for evangelism & outreach
 - 50th Anniversary Celebration – preparation, promotion, and execution of this historic event (including the managing of volunteers and the supervision of events)
 - Summer Home Bible Studies – organize homes and study material
 - Family Fun Day – organize
 - Patriotic Sunday – continue to encourage our elected/appointed officials to attend, organize preparation and follow-up, take part in service
 - Sunday School Breakfast – organize and promote
- Design, build & display a resource center/source in the lobby (tracts, bulletins, newsletters, etc.)
- Improve ministry skills
 - Read or listen to 4 ministry resources
 - Attend one ministry conference/seminar
- Regular evangelism/discipleship efforts
 - Continue to encourage the church family's personal evangelism through casual conversation, the insertion of evangelistic material in the bulletin, and public announcements during weekly services
 - Increase regular participation in Young Married's ABF by 3 couples
 - Continue to develop and promote various adult Bible studies on Wednesday nights
